Dec. 21—For Rhonda Gullette, the meaning of Christmas was forever changed 29 years ago. "I don't really celebrate the holidays like other people," said Gullette, whose 18-year-old sister Danita was one of six people shot and killed over three days around Christmas in 1992. "I go back in my mind and I think about the day I found out that my sister was killed." Four young people embarked on a ...
